CAMPUS NAMED FOR 'Butch' FLINT!

Desperadoes Skip City, Maxwell Hauls Loot

Spring is sprung! So is Butch Flint's uncle—Bosphorous Quincy Flint.

Paroled from Alcatraz only last week, he arrived in Santa Ana last night and left almost immediately in the company of his nephew Butch, John H. (The Kid) McCoy, and the Student Loan Fund.

A reward of $10,000 or a free trip to Alaska has been offered for the capture of these desperados, dead or alive, by members of the Flint Institute.

When last seen, they were headed in the general direction of the Mexican border in McCoy's Maxwell Special.

Hitchhikers accepting a ride from these unscrupulous fugitives do so at their own risk; betting odds have it that the Maxwell won't hold together any farther than Laguna.

Sassiety of Loanly Hearts Gives Loan

Final plans are being made for conducting a loan drive to be sponsored by the Sassiety of the Loanly Hearts, President Robert Horseman announced today.

The loan is being given for any student who wishes to make a Cook's tour to Death Valley for the summer. The goal set by the sassiety for this week's drive is $1000.

Voluntary contributions from the faculty members of Flint Institute will be required. Interest on the loan will be 99 44-100 per cent on the dollar.

Horseman revealed that any money collected above the total needed will be used to purchase the picture "Loan Pine" for the Men's lounge, which is located here at Flint Institute.

PEEK-A-BAO!

Bill Cook had been out hunting several hours with Blanch Beatty when Bill suddenly grew uneasy. Finally panic overtook him. "We're lost!" he cried to Blanch. "What on earth shall we do?"

"Keep your shirt on!" said Beatty. "Shoot an extra deer and the game warden will be here in a minute and a half."

APES MAKE JC CAMPUS NEW HOME

THESE TWO 'APES', who escaped this week from Lloyd G. Barnes' circus, are making the jaysee campus their new home. They like it almost as well as their native jungle, the only thing missing are the cages. When interviewed, the hairy fellows definitely refused to discuss Hoiles' economic theories or the cake which was baked by the college cooking class. The little fellow, aged one, is looking forward to reading The Register and the Rugg books. (See page 4).

B. Mescrewio Sets New National Jump Record at 3 Feet 8 Inches

Smashing the National A. A. U. mark in the high jump just the other day down on Poly field in a meet with Willard Junior high school, Blas Mescrewio, a comparative unknown Flint Institute cinder prospect, soared to a dazzling height of 3 feet, 8 inches.

This eclipsed the old record of 3 feet, 6 and seven-eighths inches set a decade ago by old Joe Smulch of the No Count Athletic club of Hoboken, N. Y.

BIG PROSPECT

Overshadowing the outcome of the important trackfest, the super leap of Mescrewio ranked him definitely as an outstanding prospect for the 1941 3-4 Bonfire Games in Magillicuddy's back lot.

In his first attempt the unheralded Mescrewio missed, tipping the bar with his foot. In his next trial the straight-haired towhead kicked off the same bar. And on his third effort, the height was too much—he booted it off again.

NEW RECORD

But the fourth time, he unlaced his over-size brogans, donned an oxygen tank and took off for the upper stratosphere. And this time he succeeded. Up, up, and up, he soared. Over the dizzy height to a new record.

No one seems to know just how high this Mescrewio can jump. But that moon had better be careful or it will get booted in the face, too!

The meet was won by the Willard Bull-dozers when they swept the shot-put to triumph over the powerful Dons.

PEEK-A-BOO!

Jack Gardner wants to know if he could interest us for a trivial monetary consideration in the purchase or acquisition of an amphibious fowl of the family 'anatidae—a fowl adapted by webbed pedantic extremities to aquamarine existence?

In other words, he says, do we wanna buy a duck?

Use Tippy C. C. Flint Agonomen; Delighted Snoozer Exclaims, "I Want L. A. Education"

Santa Ana Junior college will not die. It will continue to live—in spirit, anyway!

Dogs and cattle and horses and farm yard folk will continue to roam its spacious 10-foot campus (photo on page 2). Bungalows will continue to serve as classrooms and spittoons for tobacco chewing studes.

But the Big Thing about it is that it will be named after C. C. C. Flint, head of the institute.

That was decided at a meeting of the Bored of Education recently. C. C. C. Flint, they said, was running student affairs anyway and the place might as well be named after him. According to his testimony everything comes after him anyway (even the femmes).

When awakened from a sound sleep for an early morning interview last night C. C. C. said at noon that he was delighted over last evening's actions. It was reported he would be appointed head janitor in addition to his posts as dean of men, instructor, head of Fiesta, social commissioner, world traveler, noted lecturer, prominent club member, historian, home builder, student adviser, etc., etc., and et cetera.

It is rumored that C. C. C. was so delighted over the new recognition given him that he plans a trip to Los Angeles this summer rather than tour Europe.

"I have been every place and seen everything anyway (that's his favorite expression)," says Flint. "My education will be completed after I see and learn about L. A."

He plans to reserve a car on the Santa Fe railroad and will take five trunks and three uppers on his Los Angeles pilgrimage. "This will constitute a real wardrobe," he said.

C. C. C. HAS 'IT'

P. K. HAMMOND was this week given permission to remain in his post as director after the Bored of Education named C. C. C. Flint head of the local institution. He was only given the job, the committee reported, because they wouldn't think of disappointing C. C. C.

Bachelors, Spinsters, Display Lovely Clothes at Mother's Tea

Brotherhood of Bachelors held their Annual Mother's Tea yesterday afternoon on the front lawn of Flint Institute from 2 to 4 p. m. Aiding the Bachelors in their annual event, were the Spinsters sister club.

"The whole affair was just too too divine," President Bill Semnacher stated. "We had a grand turnout, and all the boys just looked lovely in their new spring outfits."

Among the highlights of the fashion parade were Lawrence Todd and Bill Twist, resplendent in pink chiffon shirts and white slacks. (Continued on page 4)

Cartoonist Gardner was released from his straight-jacket long enough to draw this cross section of life on the jaycee campus, so remember, anything you see or hear—April Fool!

At the extreme left are pictured Scums Was and Markel. They respect the Brothers, do everything they tell them, and don't talk to women. April Fool! Next is a Junior Lion pledge with a real live lion he bagged on the campus. That guy resting under a tree is Gaucho Pledge Joe Thompson. It isn't spring fever cause he's always that way!

The wild-eyed cookie in the foreground is Lloyd "Connecticut" Barnes. He has just spotted six of jaycee's most promising women and will have them all dated in 10 minutes. To Lloyd's right is Mike, who is headed for the tree Joe is under!

You can tell this is an April fool trip because of the full ash can. The next guy is Bud Twerp, the campus brains, who is going into Prof. Nealley's room for a psychology quiz. He thinks he's going to pass it. Boy, will he be fooled!

In the far background are the two prize fools of the school, Mize and Sebastian, playing tag after eluding 14 cops and a National Guard posse!

Catherine Cooper is bawling out Herschel Albrecht for playing a prank on her. Of course, he'll laugh and say, "Preposterous!" That stupid-looking individual behind the hill is a Buccaneer pledge looking for some one to play with. Next we have "Doc" Rossiter telling "Tex" Smith about all of his fights and how he licked everyone in the third grade. "Tex" looks awed, but she's heard the same line so many times that it now bores her. Sho' nuff!

That's not Dopey, folks, but "Butch" Flint of Flint Institute stunned at the two boys playing cards. It seems "Butch" only had two aces, lost the hand, and it has made him look worried. It wouldn't be a true picture of our campus if we didn't show you the jaycee building which is in a near state of collapse and that's no fooling. The cow on the lawn adds atmosphere!

Well, that's about all for today, kiddies, except to tell you that the two old men shaking hands in the foreground are "Ruggman" Hoiles and "Sandman" Beeman. It seems they have just agreed on each others' economic theories. If you can think up a better April Fool gag than that, please let us know!

Justice Prevails—Johnny McBride Is Placed On Trial For Misconduct

Evidence was being arranged against John McBride, erstwhile student of Flint Institute, as final preparations for his trial on vice charges were being made today. The trial begins this afternoon in superior court number 1.

GRADE FIXING

Most widespread in use of his chain of rackets is grade fixing. Classes that have been victimized include L. L. Beeman's political science classes, H. O. Russell's physics classes, and one of Mrs. Knipes' English sections.

Witnesses who were subpoenaed by press time were Claire Crougham, Josephine Corwin, Isamu Masuda, Glenn Layton, Elynor Luz, and Stanley Slaback. It was learned on good authority that several key witnesses have not yet been summoned.

DATE BUREAU

An undercover date bureau run in partnership with Virginia Shepard will also be hit by the prosecution. It is believed that such widely known people as Gil Nehrig, Al Clapper, and Max Galusha will be arrested as accomplices.

A deputy district attorney stated unofficially that many petty rackets not yet associated with McBride will be halted if a conviction is secured. Typical misdemeanors are the weaning of Baby bonds, holding parking places in front of College hall, and the copying of star maps out of the Nature magazine.

Smash Crime Ring; Battle Ensues

Uncovering what is reported to be one of the biggest crime rings in the Flint Institute underworld, Captain Calvin C. Flint's trained secret police swooped down today on the Men's Lounge, illegally operated gambling den, and ensnared several alleged criminals in the drag net of the law.

TERRIFIC STRUGGLE

After a terrific struggle of four hours, Flint's squad succeeded in forcing their way into the Lounge where roulette wheels, dice tables, slot machines, and other tools of iniquity were quickly and thoroughly destroyed by deputies. But only after a desperate battle, were Flint's officers able to capture two of the alleged criminals who had fortified themselves securely behind a gambling table.

DUMB EVIDENCE

After overpowering the two, Flint claims to have discovered dumb evidence on their persons, a deck of cards, two poker chips, and a game of "Pick Up Sticks."

As Captain Flint placed the huge padlock of the law on the battered door of the Men's Lounge, he stated to the Santa Ana press, "It is my responsibility to stamp out crime and bloodshed in the Institute community. I hope that this will prove to all that, even on a union basis, crime still does not pay!"

Burleykew Men Steal Prof's Gags

Members of the Flint institute's bored of education met last night at a special meeting to determine the full extent of damage done to the pride and spirit of Instructor Frederick Schroeder, local health expert. In the ensuing half-hour of concentration, the board came to the decision that Mr. Schroeder has been the victim of foul play at the hands of "gag" stealers, said to be working the territory around the institute campus.

STATES SIDE

Mr. Schroeder stated his side of the case as being very pathetic and touching. With tears rolling down his cheeks, and a wistful look in his eyes, he explained to the board that some of the best jokes in his career had been stolen from his 11 o'clock class room by a trio of famous burlesque men, disguised as students.

After hearing the famous health teachers side of the controversy, the members of the board, led by President - by - Permission D. K. Hammond, issued an edict that students shall give an uproarious laugh at all of Schroeder's ill found jokes and also came to the conclusion that patents will be taken out on each joke, hereafter, with a censorship placed on all those which do not get a laugh from the students.

Warrants have been taken out for the arrest of the burlesque men, and will be served by Mr. Schroeder as somewhat of a compensation for the insult which he has been subject to.

Appointments of four committees has been approved for the purpose of further investigating the type of jokes which the health instructor has been "pulling." Students are urged to form their opinions of the jokes and write them on a slip, then drop them in the box at the end of the hall.

PEEK-A-BOO

Larry Todd (Star football player): "Yes, it's my ambition to be a judge some day."
Girl friend (?): "You're fortunate. Your experience on the bench ought to be very useful then."

Tea And Cakes Will Entice Ruggers

Flint Institute's hardy ruggers have found that English sport so fascinating that they have "gone the whole hog" and have switched to cricket with tea and cakes at four, it was announced today.

"Sir Lancelot" Butterworth has told the press that "the boys got tired of kicking the gong-er—the ball around." It has been circulating that his forwards had bunions and suggested a reprieve.

PINK TEA—WOW!

Temporary arrangements have been made for the Moavs to serve the sweaty behemoths cup cakes & pink tea following practice sessions, railbirds said. President Mary Knoche, Hostess Emeritus, said that plans for embroidered napkins had been launched.

The team will open its season next month following practice games with the Boston Red Sox, the Cards and the Brooklyn Dodgers.

LINE-UP TERRIFIC

Fred Kobayashi will hurl the bull for the Dons with Grant Keller catching. Duane Teel will officiate behind the plate. Harold Tucker and Mr. E. M. Nealley are bat boys with the remainder of the squad joining the union.

"Well, old boy, three strikes and you get put out, you know," guffawed Coach Butterworth. Nobody laughed.

PEEK-A-BOO

In explaining the monetary system to one of his classes, Mr. Holmes plunked a half dollar on his desk, and asked the class: "Who can tell me what this is?"

Immediately Willie White from the back of the room replied: "TAILS!"

HE MUST HAVE seen the birdie. At least C. C. C. Flint's eyes bulged when this picture was taken. He plans a trip to Los Angeles this summer rather than return to Turkey. "See Orange County first" is my motto this year, says C. C. C.

PEEK-A-BOO!

What does it take to get into Beta Gamma?

Nothing, absolutely nothing. Such has been demonstrated time and time again during the past two years, according to well informed campus wags. All a fellow has to do to belong to the alleged honor group is to know someone who does.

Scan the list of members. If you can prove that a majority should merit any honorary distinction, El Toro will give you a handsome bound copy of "Smearing the Comforts of Life" by I. C. Boils. The columns of this paper are always open to all replies and we'll print them if we want to and if they agree with our theories. (There's more truth than poetry to this, folks!)

Coach .....

Butterworth Picks 'Foremost 15'

Coach "Sir Lancelot" Butterworth, of the Ernest Butterworths, (plug) today announced his foremost fifteen men who will receive letters in rugby for playing for deah old Flint Institute.

ICK VALUABLE MEN

Also, he announced the names of three most valuable men, selected from a poll taken by the Literary Digest. Several new stars popped up following the All-club All College set-to, and consequently there are a few changes in the lineup.

Lettermen are Phil Hay, War Admiral, Bill Cook, Don Ford, Larry Timken, "Peewee" Grisett, "Killer" Flint, Dave Whelp, Donald Duck, "Lovey" Woven, Bill Wist, William Wilson jr., Skinny Truck, "Chuck" Milner and "Speed" Opp.

UGGERS GAMBLE? TCH, TCH
The Men's Lounge was mentioned because of housing and gambling facilities for ruggers between practices.

The four most valuable men on the squad were waterboy Whelp, Kay Hammond, mass employer of the team, Pill Semnacher, and Lancelot himself.

COLLEGE HALL

Timk'n Suspended For Non-Support

"Wild Bill" Cook informed El Toro today that 1938 grid prospects "had assumed a gloomy outlook" when he learned that Larry Timken, newly-elected co-captain, had been suspended from Flint Institute on charges of non-support.

"It was like this," brooded the senior partner of Cook & Beatty football firm. "They caught him putting washers in a slot machine which was placed in the hall for the purpose of buying the dean a new cushion for his chair."

The ever-ready Blanchard Beatty enlightened the situation by injecting, "Now, there's not a thing to worry about. We have two co-captains, and there is one left. I can't beef."

An unconfirmed report which read that Cook was to carry out his intention of ordering lightweight watermelons for spring passing practice. "And when we get done tossing 'em around," he grinned, "they'll be ripe enough to eat."

River Rats Bow In Tight One 56 To 1-2

Flint Institute's fighting nine beat the Oceanside River Rats last week with a batting attack that paralleled with Argonne Forest battle. The final score was 56-1/2.

Pitcher Nieblas fanned eleven batters in a row before he cracked.

GIVEN CREDIT

Oceanside was given credit on the cuff for one-half of a digit because one of their men died on the second sack and the lone marker stood in memorium.

Jesse Haxton muffed a long fly and was sent to the dugout for the remainder of the war. Beatty objected to the umpire's ruling and had it out with the Oceanside coach and the umpire, who later was found to be a relative of the Beach coach. They will settle out of court.

MANTLE EATERS

The next engagement will be kept in back of the Women's Lounge with no holds barred. It was rumored that anyone telling "Butch" Flint of the fray will eat off a mantle for a week.

LATHROP IS DEFEATED

THE ABSENT-MINDED professor (Harry P. Jackson) runs the refueling plane for the endurance flight. "Shucks," says Jackson, "I forgot to bring my adding machine along—and my secretary."

Dons Down Rivals By 99-98 Score In Dual Meet

Flashing to a last minute victory, the bedraggled, speckled Dons of Flint Institute overwhelmed a game but helpless Lathrop junior high school cinder squad last night on the indoor track of the Y, 99 1/2-99 1/4.

MILE RUN

The meet was decided in the mile run. Bill Huntale, running with his team mate Mike, who was on a leash, took an early lead. Mike, trying to get the beefsteak which dangled just out of reach in front of his nose dragged Bill under the wire for a photo-finish with Seabiscuit. Time was 8:30 p. m.

Salter Bopp ran away with the discus and javelin in the field events. They never did catch him, although he was spiked by a relay runner who got lost. Later the misguided runner remarked, "Well, I was on the wrong way all right, but I was making such good time that I decided to keep going."

CASUALTY COMES

A casualty came when Les Huhn's water wings lost their gas as he sailed over the crows' nest in the pole vault.

The feature of the evening came when the stop watch stuck in the hundred yard dash and Joe Brawford hung up an all-time record of negative nothing flat.

Amid a pyramid of pillows and empty aspirin boxes Coach Cook said the boys would go to the Penn State relays in Febtober and then would hang up their spiked brogans.

the American Association of Athletics. They are as follows: first prize, two sacks of genuine agates; second prize, one sack of Kress marbles; and third prize will be coffee and doughnuts at the Greasy Spoon.

NO FREE LUNCH?

Everyone is cordially urged to turn out for the gala event which is to be held on the corners of Fourth and Main streets, downtown Santa Ana. Bring your lunch and stay late as admission is free.

Grook Issues Call To Hornet Stars

Head Football Coach Bill Grook announced today that a $100 scholarship would be given each and every worthy 200-pound lineman or backfield star who can qualify for Flint Institute entrance requirements.

Necessary entrance qualifications for football men were listed as including one full year of high school, a D grade average, and an out-of-state residence.

As an added inducement, the coach said an easy job, living quarters, spending money and free entertainment over the week-ends including cigarettes, would be provided with each scholarship.

The scholarship is good for three months of each institute year, Coach Grook added.

With spring practice scheduled to begin directly after vacation, applicants are advised to submit their qualifications immediately.

Set Marble Shoot For Next Friday

BULLETIN

Official word was received on the Flint Institute campus today from secret operatives working in New York city, that competition in the annual marble shooting contest to be held here next Friday will be very tough.

Cy Leivermann, Minnesota's domination to mankind, was today installed as favorite in next Friday's big event—the annual marble elimination games, which will start immediately at 11 o'clock and will last until the best man has shown his superiority.

Although the Minnestoa giant has thus far shown quite an outstanding ability to perform with the marbles, several others have proven that they will be right in the middle of things when the gun is sounded, signifying the start of the affair.

PROFS OUTSTANDING

Among the faculty entered, there are two outstanding contenders, Dr. John Brown Mason and Thomas H. Glenn. These two have been showing a fondness to the game since spring practice opened last summer and have even gone so far as to make a grudge battle out of it for first honors.

Prizes have been announced by

Plans Are Completed For New Super Jaysee Structure

Plans for the much-hoped for jaysee buildings have been completed, it was announced in an exclusive (exclusive facts) interview this week by P. K. Hammond. Mr. Hammon was given permission to reveal this announcement by Dictator-Feuhrer-Emperor-Director-President-Dean of Men and Women-Calvin C. (the "C" stands for Coach) Flint, of Flint Institute here.

The new plant will be 14 stories high with room provided at the top for additional stories. Living quarters for students will be built, a room apartment accommodates each student. Instructors will have a room in the basement, providing it fits into the architectural plans, Mr. Hammond added (by permission of Chief Flint of Flint Institute.)

CALATORS

Five escalators will be installed to carry inmates to their classrooms. There will be a slide leading to the basement for members of the faculty. No plans have been made for stairs leading out. Miss Lucinda Griffith, art instructor, is designing the classrooms in which an abundance of lounge lounges will be placed. Each room will contain its own fountain and lunch counter—free to all students.

INSTRUCTORS' STOOLS

Instructors will have a three-runged stool in case they wish to sit. Latest cinema productions will be shown for students whose mental processes are over-taxed. Mr. Hammond continued, after he was given permission by Head Man Flint of Flint Institute.

One of the main features of the plans calls for boats which each student will have for his private use during foggy weather. There will also be beacons to guide the foggy-headed students.

Mrs. Cottrell: "I say, Mr. Titenor, didn't you miss my class the week-end of the Chaffey game?"

Fred Titenor: "Not at all, professor, not at all."

PEEK-A-BOO!

Bob Prescott (would-be-journalist): "I told McCoy I didn't like the way he criticized me in class. I told him I would cover my beat when I pleased. I told him I would write what I wanted to write. I told him he was all wet on assignments. I told him unless he took back some of the things he said about me that I'd drop the course. I told him—"

Interested Listener: "And what did he say?"

Prescott: "He told me I was absolutely right. He told me I didn't have to write anything at any time. He told me I was my own boss. He told me he appreciated my viewpoint. He told me to drop the course."

We . . . Give . . . Up! . . . Hatchet Murders Won't Stop!

(AN EDITORIAL)

These hatchet murders on the campus must cease! The janitor has been complaining lately of the terrible condition existing on our campus, (as if we didn't know) and he says that 46 extra NYA members have been added to the custodian patrol in an effort to keep our lawn free from corpses.

This is a plea!

Will those institute citizens who feel it their duty to periodically dirty our lovely layout please dispose of bodies in other places?

After you have hacked your victim to death, don't just discard the guy on the lawn or behind a palm tree or in the Men's Lounge. Last week four dead men in the lounge were expelled by Calvin C. "Tiger" Flint for playing cards.

This must stop!

So next time think twice before throwing a hatchet-hewn corpse on the lawn. Go put him in Mr. Schroeder's alcohol tank or one of the Bachelor's alcohol tanks, but my gawd, keep him off the campus. It's dead enough!

Gamble Devices Accrue $43.11

Flint Institute has cleared $43.11 profit during the past week from the operation of recently-established gambling devices in the Men's lounge, Chief Bo-Hunk Calvin C. Flint announced today.

"Since the establishment of the college-operated roulette wheel, the wheel of fortune, and the crap games in the lounge," Mr. Flint stated, "the institute has been able to pay for its entire campus maintenance from the profits accruing from these devices."

"The rumors circulating around the institute that these machines are crooked are entirely false, however," he emphasized.

YE MAILBAG

Editor, El Don:

You had better retract your statement about "Los Gauchos being a bunch of lazy bums," because I'm plenty sore. I am the president of Los Gauchos, you know, and I'll have you know that we have done a lot for a new campus. For instance, we tried to see Mr. Wells at least once, and was it our fault that we couldn't find him?

One of your good-for-nothing reporters came to see me, and I told him where to head in at. I guess he found out! I'm president of Los Gauchos, you know, and I'm plenty sore.

Name any other club that has tried to do more: I'm president of Los Gauchos, and I'm plenty sore!

Gauchos Aroused, Hosses Gone

Toting six-guns, 25 Los Gauchos vigilantes patrolled their south lawn pasture of Flint Institute today as the aftermath of a spectacular hoss-stealing expedition conducted last night.

At least 10, some observers place the number closer to 25, of the Gauchos finest hoss-flesh were routed from their corral early last night by unknown bandits. The steeds were the property of the Gaucho pledges, and were of fine hickory stock.

The Gauchos, upon finding the looting, buckled on six-guns and prepared to do battle with any more rustlers. Leading the vigilantes is Fred Kobayashi, rootin' tootin' two-gun he-man from Texas.

Further developments were expected momentarily as there was considerable shootin' off of guns and mouths.

NO FOOLIN'

Mary Knoche: "Every time I raise my hand my boy friend gives me a good beating."

Katy Eklund: "Why don't you tell the bulls?"

Mary: "What do they know about bridge?"

If all the students who slept in Papa Beeman's class were placed end to end they would be much more comfortable.

Jack Hutton: "I do wish I could think of some way to make the members of the congregation keep their eyes on me when I'm preaching such good sermons."

Kenneth Schroeder: "Why don't you put the clock right behind the pulpit, Jack."

Donald Ford (in a movie to little boy sitting behind him): "Can't you see, little fellow?"

Dave Welsh: "Not a thing."

Ford: "Then keep your eye on me and laugh when I do."

Marvin Hinton: "But why do you keep on calling me Charlie? Didn't I tell you my name was Marvin?"

Genevieve Glover: "Of course! How stupid of me. But I keep on thinking this is Wednesday night."

Nervous suitor (Bob Faul): "Mam, er—that is, I would like to—er—that is, I mean I have been going with your daughter for five years."

Mrs. Kirchner: "Well, waddy want—a pension?"

Charley Sayers: "Yes, sir. I'm sure a great singer."

Onie Sanders: "Where did you learn to sing?"

Sayers: "I graduated from a correspondence school."

Sanders: "Boy, you sure lost lots of your mail."

Display Lovely Clothes At Tea

A green silk blouse and red tie, set Paul Rossiter off from the rest of the crowd.

Dave Phoenix blossomed out in a beaded bolero jacket, and murmurs of surprise went up as Bob Faul walked in dressed in one of the new lavender and yellow striped shirts with pink flannel slacks.

SPINSTERS AID

On the whole, we were quite pleased with the whole thing," Big Shot Semnacher said. "Of course we couldn't have done it without the aid of the Spinsters."

The tea was topped off with an exciting game of drop-the-handkerchief. Those not participating amused themselves and onlookers by putting on a spelling bee, a new game that promises to be a hit. Owl!

Smearing the Comforts of Life

By U. C. ?

If you turn to page 5,555 of Volume 55, (1935 edition) of Muggs' famous nine foot shelf of booklets, you will find this quotation by the author:

"As civilization progresses, the folly of education becomes more and more evident."

"Boys and girls, young men and women, spend the best years of their lives with their noses to the educational grindstone. They while away their time with their shoulder against the wheel of learning . . . and for what?"

"All the modern educated youth amounts to is a bundle of foolish bridges or the striver after some lofty dream. Engineers, scientists, doctors, lawyers, all are activities of insignificance, and all are the fate of him who inflicts upon himself the unnecessary evil of college!"

"Education should be abolished. It is an institution that is depriving our youth from the very basis of life itself!"

"Down with education I say! There is only one solution . . . Give every youth in America a set of my nine foot shelf of booklets and they will all grow up to be newspaper publishers!"

Squawk 'o the Town

A Review of Fashions

By I. M. TELLINGYOU

FRESH AND DEWY as California weather in the spring are the beige chiffon riding breeches sold by Butch McCarthy's Ladies' Store. The waist is outlined in brilliant orchid yarn, giving the new princess effect to the bodice.

MY PARENTAL blessing is given the too too irresistible dancing frock as worn by Josephine Butler for the Smith's Women's Wear show. Executed in loathsome green cheesecloth, the skirt is embroidered in mustard-colored crepe chine.

FLOWERS FOR the buttonhole of that certain man may be secured from the Hay Fever Flower Nursery in Garden Grove. Charles Sayers is sporting one of their adorable crimson primrose variety.

LOVEY-KNIT Woolen Mills are the proud parents of a heather tweed mixture spring suit for Flint Institute. With each purchase Lovey-Knit promises one top hat of pepper and salt fabric with butter and rye-bread crumb trim. Would it most appetizing.

FOR THE FINAL touch to your sporting garb, I recommend "Pe fume la Lure Exotique No. 21" shown by La Petite Men's Shop for the dashing young man-about-town. Makers of this popular perfume guarantee two dates with each drop.

READ MY COLUMN each week for preview tips on the latest fashions. Remember, it's the Squawk of the Town. (Adv.)

Eleanor Cogan: "What kind of stone is in Patty Clark's engagement ring?"

Margaret Davies: "A rolling stone. I had it last."

The absent minded biology professor (Mr. J. RUSSELL BRUFF) was speaking. "I have here some very fine specimens of frogs, which will show you."

Unwrapping the parcel, he revealed some sandwiches, fruit and hard-boiled eggs.

"Good heavens!" he gasped. "And I thought I ate my lunch!"

DR. JOHN BROWN MASON, above, demonstrates the proper method of platform speaking as he delivers his annual St. Patrick's Day speech at the third annual Siamese twin convention held in Birch park recently. Several thousand Ethiopians who held their picnic at the same time, are shown also.

Johnny Joseph's dad: "I hear my son made a 98-yard run in the big game."

Coach Cook: "That's true, but did he tell you that he didn't catch the man ahead of him?"

Then there was the absent minded professor (Dr. Mason in this case) who thought he had left his watch at home so he took it out to see if he had time to go back after it.

HOW ARE YOUR COMPLEXES TODAY?

INCLUDED AMONG NEW requirements for graduation is a dose by the super-psycho-infra-ultra-mentality jigger (above), invented by E. M. Nealley, jaycee psychology instructor. The thingumbob peeps up moronic mentalities, according to Mr. Nealley, and will make Flint Institute students seem almost human. Mr. Nealley got the idea from reading the Buck Rogers comic strips, he stated. First to be treated was Vic Rowland (above), who has been in jaycee long enough anyhow.
